“Here in San Antonio Alex gave a talk to our group of kids. I have known all these kids for most of their lives. As Alex began to talk I watched them and their reactions to him. As he went along, their body language changed from casual indifference to riveted interest. What I thought was going to be an hour session turned into about 3 hours of intense questions, answers, interaction, thought provocation, and most likely profound salvation.

Alex was amazing and I can't tell you how much we appreciated his willingness to come and share his gifts with us and our kids. We will be forever grateful. I just wanted to give you a glimpse of his impact on that group during his time with them. Alex, God bless you in all that you do.” J.S. Gaines, Texas

“I was so encouraged by Alex's apologetics weekend. I believe that it was the best event that our church has ever hosted. The sessions were especially beneficial to our members. I would love to host this again soon. Please keep up the good work, and keep us updated.” S. E. Slaughter, North Carolina

“This was awesome information! I was in your seminar on “5 Things that distinguish Jesus from anyone else who ever lived.” This is exactly the kind of info we need today. Alex, you are a gifted communicator, and I was inspired by what you shared. Thank you for doing the job that God has led you to do, and thank you for doing it well. After listening and reading your materials, there is not a shred of doubt in my mind, Jesus IS Lord.” S.F., Chowan College, North Carolina

“Alex, my life has completely changed since I went to your program. I had been running from God, and I had even tried to kill myself the night before the program. I told God that I would give Him one more chance. I just want to let your team know that I was saved, due to your obedience and dedication to God. I am praying for your whole team.” J.H., Delaware

“You were an answered prayer when you came to my church. I had prayed for someone or something to provide validity for God's existence. I felt too guilty to mention my request to anyone. What kind of Christian needs proof? Where was my faith? Oh, but what a compassionate God we serve! He answered my prayer through your apologetics presentation that evening. I developed a new outlook toward my God who answered my secret prayer. I am thankful for your genuineness, dedication, and compassion.” S.B., Appalachian State University, North Carolina

“Thank you for coming to our school for “See You At The Pole.” You really helped us all become more bold about what we believe, and you showed us what the world needs. Everyone there wanted one of your stickers, and I have never seen people want something about Jesus before. I think that was a great thing you did! You showed us that we do not have to be ashamed of Jesus.” D.C., Northeast High School

“Our people are still talking about the seminar and all they got out of it. I believe that your apologetics ministry had a much greater impact than any of us can possibly know.” Rev. D. Bell, FL

“It has been a week since our event, and people are still sharing how they felt that this was the best such rally ever held in our association. You hit two “grand slams,” and I truly believe that there are many here, including me, who will not take lightly the sharing of their faith. Thank you for doing a great ministry in our midst.” R. Luck, Missions Director, Tennessee

“Thank you for challenging and encouraging us through the preaching and apologetics teaching. We registered nineteen decisions, nine of which were for salvation. We will be following up with these people in their newfound faith.”

E. Hedding, pastor, Illinois

“The apologetics conference was spectacular. We need to stand firm against today’s “anything goes” attitude. Apologetics and Christian values are needed exceptions to the attitude of complete tolerance, and we can no longer remain silent.”

Paul and Debbie, Connecticut

“The apologetics information you have presented is like a spiritual breath of fresh air. The teaching spawned a renewed confidence in my Lord and rekindled a fire for reaching our world for Jesus Christ. I enjoyed the balance of intellectual and passionate content. I have been revived, and I now desire to march on with an informed love for Jesus Christ. Again, thank you so much.” T.W.

“Alex, your seminar on apologetics and evangelism was FANTASTIC! This is what our churches and nation need right now.” K.C.

“Alex’s apologetics have definitely given a lot of inspiration and hope to the students here at our college. It was great to be able to have someone talk about things from an informed, Christian, point of view. Alex is at the top of the list for speaking here at Campus Crusade.” D.C.,
Campus Crusade for Christ

“People are frequently confused about the issues, because of the conditioning of the liberal media. Thanks for addressing the issues straight on, without compromise. Brother, you are right on!” S.K.
